

ANNUAL OF MEDIEVAL STUDIES AT CEU

VOL. 15 2009

Edited by
Judith A. Rasson and Béla Zsolt Szakács

Fifteen-Year Anniversary Reports
Edited by
Marianne Sághy

Central European University
Budapest
Department of Medieval Studies

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Fifteen Years of Medieval Studies in Central Europe	169
Marianne Sághy
Medieval Perspectives after the Fall	171
Rossina Kostova
Bulgarian Landscapes in Medieval Studies	177
Trpimir Vedriš
Reviving the Middle Ages in Croatia	197
Antonín Kalous
Medieval Research in the Czech Republic	213
Anu Mänd
Medieval Studies in Estonia	221
Levan Gigineishvili
Quo Vadis Medieval Studies in Georgia?	231
Michael Brauer
Medieval History and Medieval Studies in Germany:
From Cultural to Transcultural	237
Benedek Láng
The Renaissance of the Middle Ages in Hungary	247
Giedrė Mickūnaitė
Lithuania: Let's Celebrate the Anniversary of Greatness	257
Ryszard Grzesik
The Study of the Middle Ages in Poland	265
Carmen Florea
Is There a Future for Medieval Studies in Romania?	279
Péter Levente Szőcs
Medieval Studies on the Border	287
Ildar H. Garipzanov
Interdisciplinarity, Internationalization, and
Christian identity in Modern Medieval Studies	297
Nada Zečević
Medieval Studies in Serbia 1993 – 2008	305
Martin Homza
The Making of Medieval Studies in Slovakia	313
David Movrin
Base and Superstructure: Medieval Studies in Slovenia and
a Change of Context	325
Yuriy Zazuliak
A Discipline without a Past: Medieval Studies in Ukraine	339
Giles Constable
Recent Trends in the Study of the Middle Ages	355

Fifteen Years of Medieval Studies in Central Europe

